General Guidelines : Authors should follow the rules stated here for submission of the manuscripts. Primarily the submitted articles are considered by the editors for the confirmation of the standard and the scope of the journal. If any submitted article fails to fulfill primary standard, the same will be rejected which will be informed only on enquiry after a waiting period of at least three months. If the editors are satisfied, the article entries would go through the process of blind peer review. The rule also applies to the members of the Editorial board. It is imperative to note that the editor will subject every entry through a rigorous pre-review. The authors should take care to ensure that the content in the manuscript does not offend/hurt the sentiment of any community and does not use any defamatory or derogatory language. Editorial Board is not liable to give any explanation for rejection of any paper.
